

Jack: gfk

In talking to Dean Rusk, Mr. Dulles was faced with the question of Walt Rostow. Mr. Dulles believes we may get a call from Robert Kennedy to produce our papers on Rostow. Rusk had wanted us to give him a letter stating that he was cleared. Mr. Dulles pointed out that we could do that only for our own personnel; that we had had a Security Board review Rostow's case; and that we had cleared him for our own purposes. Mr. Dulles told Rusk that our complete files would be made available to any qualified person acting for the President-elect.
